Welcome to Mrs Bland's Infant and Nursery School

Mrs Bland's Infant and Nursery School has extended its Early Years Provision to include a two year old setting. The Nursery Class (Acorns) and Pre-Nursery Class (Little Acorns) are vibrant and exciting settings where children enjoy their education and learning and make good progress in a stimulating environment. We are committed to developing the whole child through their creativity and diversity. We aim to support and guide children to grow into confident, happy, independent lifelong learners who can function as successful members of the community. Our expectations are high in terms of both behaviour and attitudes to learning.

Every child at Mrs Bland's Nursery and Pre-Nursery is recognised as being a special and unique individual.

All aspects of our provision encourage children to:

Celebrate Difference

We welcome children from all social, cultural, ethnic and religious backgrounds. Equality of opportunity and inclusion underpins all areas of learning, teaching and school life. We celebrate diversity and teach children to positively recognise and respect everyone's differences as well as similarities.

Enjoy and Achieve

Excellence and enjoyment are central to our school ethos. We provide a rich, varied, creative curriculum, ensuring that every child has an equal opportunity to develop and learn. Staff work hard to provide professional and stimulating first hand learning experiences which meet the needs of all children attending our setting, as well as following the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) key themes:

- Every child is unique
- Providing positive relationships
- Enabling environments
- Learning and Development
